Discover a rare opportunity to own a distinguished piece of local history with "Westholme," a beautifully preserved three-storey stone townhouse built circa 1860. This characterful residence is set amidst the charming village of Stanhope in the heart of the stunning Weardale countryside.

Set over three generous floors, this immaculate semi-detached property blends period features with modern comforts. Step into a welcoming entrance hallway leading through to an elegant lounge, perfect for relaxing with family or entertaining guests. To the rear, a delightful country-style fitted kitchen boasts ample space and natural light, making it a cosy hub for home dining.

Upstairs on the first floor, discover two inviting bedrooms, one featuring a private en suite shower room, complemented by a modern family bathroom. A secondary landing leads to the top floor, where a spacious third bedroom awaits, also enjoying its own en suite shower room—ideal for growing families or visiting guests.

Externally, the property impresses with a good-sized courtyard garden to the rear, featuring low-maintenance artificial grass. Enjoy alfresco dining or unwind in this peaceful outdoor retreat. Practicality is well considered with a driveway providing off-road parking for two cars, and a substantial outhouse offering versatility as a workshop, bar, or hobby space, complete with power.

Stanhope is a picturesque village nestled within the North Pennines Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The vibrant village centre lies within walking distance, offering independent shops, welcoming cafés, and cosy village pubs. The celebrated Stanhope Castle and the Weardale Railway bring history and a sense of community to the area, while local footpaths and cycle trails provide endless opportunities to explore dramatic moorland and riverside scenery. With excellent transport links to Durham, Bishop Auckland and the wider North East, Stanhope
